

Telluride Association of REALTORS® First Time Homebuyers Assistance Fund

Guidelines for Broker Participation

The Telluride Association of REALTORS has set up their own approved First Time Homebuyers Assistance Fund. Your participation will make a difference!

Individual Real Estate Brokers are not obligated to participate in the Fund. Participation is strictly voluntary. For those who choose to participate, the process is as follows:

For every closed transaction, you donate your choice of the following levels of contribution:

- $200
- $100
- $50
- $25 per agent, per side

Advantages of participation:

- Participants will provide financial resources to individuals and families in need of financial assistance as first time homebuyers.
- Provide home ownership opportunities within the local region served by the Telluride Association of REALTORS.
- Gain frequent and consistent publicity and increase your image with thank you advertisements including individual broker's names in both the Daily Planet and the Telluride Watch.
- Participants will receive a participation certificate suitable for framing which you will want to display in a prominent location in your real estate office.

How to participate:

- Send or deliver the attached participation form via e-mail, hard mail or fax to the Telluride Association of REALTORS indicating your participation in the Telluride Association of REALTORS First Time Homebuyers Assistance Fund. This form will be copied to the title companies. Please mail, e-mail or fax your form to:
